Ave Maria, gratia plena;
Dominus tecum,
Benedicta tu in mulieribus
Et benedictus fructus ventris tui, Jesus.
Sancta Maria, mater Dei,
Ora pro nobis peccatoribus,
Nunc et in hora mortis nostrae. Amen.

Hail Mary, full of grace,
The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.
Holy Mary, mother of God,
Pray for us sinners,
Now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Frozen Heart (Robert Herrick)
I freeze, and nothing dwells in me, but snow and icicles.
For pity’s sake give your advice
to melt this snow and thaw this ice.
I’ll drink down flames, but if so be nothing but love can supple me.
I’d rather keep this frost and snow,
than to be thawed or heated so.

The Wounded Cupid (anonymous, c. 100 B.C.E –600 C.E., translated from the Latin by Robert Herrick) Cupid as he lay among Roses, by a Bee was stung.
Whereupon in anger flying
To his Mother, said thus crying;
Help! O help! Your Boy’s a dying.
And why, my pretty Lad, said she?
Then blubbering, replied he,
A winged Snake has bitten me,
Which Country people call a Bee.
At which she smil’d; then with her hairs
And kisses drying up his tears:
Alas! Said she, my Wag! If this
Such a pernicious torment is:
Come tell me then, how great’s the smart
Of those, thou woundest with thy Dart!
Durme, durme hijiko de Madre,
Durme, durme s’in ansio y dolor;
Sienti joya palavrikas de tu Madre,
Las palabras di Shema Yisrael.
Durme, durme hijiko de Madre
Con hermozura de Shema Yisrael.

Serenity (excerpt from The Brewing of Soma, by John Greenleaf Whittier)
O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
O calm of hills above,
Where Jesus knelt to share with Thee
The silence of eternity
Interpreted by love!

Drop Thy still dews of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease;
Take from our souls the strain and stress,
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of Thy peace.

Crossing the Bar (Alfred, Lord Tennyson)
Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho’ from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.
Te Deum laudamus:
ten Dominum confitemur.
Te aeternum patrem, omnis terra veneratur.

Tibi omnes angelii,
tibi caeli et universae potestates:
tibi cherubim et seraphim, incessabili voce proclamant:
“Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt caeli et terra maiestatis gloriae tuae.”
Te gloriosus Apostolorum chorus,

ti prophetae laudabilia numerus,

ti martyrum candidatus laudat exercitus.
Te per orbem terrarum sancta confitetur Ecclesia,
Patrem immensae maiestatis;
venerandum tuum verum et unicum Filium;
Sanctum quoque Paraclitum Spiritum.
Tu rex gloriae, Christe.
Tu Patris sempiternus es Filius.
Tu, ad liberandum suscepturus hominem,

no horruisti Virginis uterum.
Tu, devicto mortis aculeo,

apercuisti credentibus regna caelorum.

We praise thee, O God:
we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud:
the Heavens, and all the Powers therein.
To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry,
Holy, Holy, Holy: Lord God of Sabaoth;

Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee.
The Father of an infinite Majesty;
thine honorable, true and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man
thou didst not abhor the Virgin’s womb.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death
thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Tu ad dexteram Dei sedes,
in gloria Patris
Iudex crederis esse venturus.

Te ergo quaesumus, tuis famulis subveni,
quos pretioso sanguine redemisti.

Aeterna fac cum sanctis tuis

In gloria numerari
Salvum fac populum tuum, Domine, et benedic hereditati tuae.
Et rege eos, et extolle illos usque in aeternum.
Per singulos dies benedicimus te;
et laudamus nomen tuum in saeculum,
et in saeculum saeculi.
Dignare, Domine, die isto sine peccato nos custodire.
Miserere nostri, Domine, miserere nostri.

Fiat misericordia tua, Domine, super nos, quemadmodum speravimus in te.
In te, Domine, speravi:
Non confundar in aeternum.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy Saints:
in glory everlasting
O Lord, save thy people and bless thine heritage.
Govern them: and lift them up for ever.

Day by day: we magnify thee;
And we worship thy Name ever world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us as our trust is in thee.
O Lord, in thee have I trusted:
Let me never be confounded.
Program Notes

One of the most beloved works of the early Renaissance, Josquin’s Ave Maria was chosen as the first piece in the first published collection of motets in 1503. The graceful vocal lines follow each other in imitation, dividing into pairs and reuniting in a full four-voice texture.

Stravinsky’s Ave Maria is one of his very few sacred choral works, written after he returned to the Russian Orthodox faith in the 1920s. It was composed in Paris in 1934, with text in Old Church Slavonic, and was republished with Latin text after Stravinsky moved to the United States in 1939.

Robert Baksa, a resident of Columbia County, is a prolific composer of chamber music, songs, orchestral music and an opera. His Herrick Songs, two of which we perform tonight, show his gifts for lyrical melody, quirky harmony, and formal clarity.

Alice Parker is one of the central figures in 20th-century American choral music. From her collaborations in the 1940s and ’50s with Robert Shaw and his Chorale through her work with her own ensemble, Melodious Accord, which continues into her 10th decade, her arrangements have stressed the central importance of melody and the close relationship of text and music. Durme, durme is an exquisite setting of a lullaby in Ladino, the language of Sephardic Jewish communities in Spain.

Charles Ives was a radical musical innovator in many ways, but his music often also draws on traditional harmony and Romantic expressivity. In Serenity, written as a song for solo voice, the melody floats gently over a pair of alternating chords, evoking the atmosphere suggested in the title. Crossing the Bar is one of Ives’s earliest choral works, setting a meditation on mortality by Alfred, Lord Tennyson in a rich 19th-century idiom.

Haydn’s Te Deum was commissioned by the Empress Maria Theresa (not the famous ruler of the mid-18th century, but her granddaughter). An exuberant, energetic piece for full orchestra and chorus, it was first performed in Vienna in 1800, in honor of a visit by the British admiral Lord Nelson, fresh from his victory over Napoleon’s navy.
