Discover you. Discover the world.
Welcome to Study Abroad!

As you explore opportunities to study abroad in Africa, I invite you to consider the benefits of this life-changing experience. We continue to learn that global challenges need global leaders, and as you challenge yourself to discover new places and people, you will gain the knowledge, skills, confidence, and passion to contribute to your community and your world.

New Paltz has a broad portfolio of programs to meet the needs of students in every major. Our advisors can point you to resources that support your plans including scholarships, financial aid, international internships, and service-learning opportunities and will guide you as you consider:

- What you hope to gain from the study abroad experience;
- How a specific program’s course offerings fit in with your academic and career plans;
- Timing of programs according to your degree requirements; and
- How the learning, social, physical, and cultural environments will impact you.

You should also consider how the benefits of education abroad will play a key role in your future. Employers hire graduates with international experience who are prepared to join the globally competitive workforce and recognize that skills developed while studying abroad are essential for management and leadership positions. Student safety is a primary concern in Study Abroad, and SUNY New Paltz prioritizes the health and security of its students through:

- One-on-one student advising;
- Pre-departure orientation;
- Direct communication through Alert Traveler and other real-time applications as students prepare to leave and while they are abroad;
- Collaboration with accredited international partner institutions and providers assures the safety of students; and
- Comprehensive emergency and mental and physical health insurance.

The Study Abroad Advisors update emergency protocols through ongoing risk assessment, consultation with the SUNY Office of Global Affairs, US State Department, CDC and other agencies.

New Paltz is committed to providing a high-quality, affordable, global education experience to all students. Whether that is in Africa or another part of the world, opportunities await you.

What are you waiting for?

Best regards,
Beth Mugler Vargas
Executive Director, Center for International Programs

Egypt is a country that traces its history across eons with a heritage dating back to the 6th–4th millennia BCE. Long known as the cradle of civilization, Egypt can boast of some of the earliest developments in writing, agriculture, urbanisation, religion and government. Great feats of engineering dot the country, including the Giza Necropolis and its Great Sphinx, and the ruins of Memphis, Thebes, Kamak, and the Valley of the Kings. History abounds in Egypt.
DISCOVER YOUR WORLD AT THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY IN CAIRO

The American University in Cairo was founded in 1919 by Americans devoted to education and community service in the Middle East. Today, AUC is the region’s premier English-language university - an essential contributor to the social, political and cultural life of the Arab world. It also serves as a crossroads for the world’s cultures: a vital, vibrant forum for reasoned argument, spirited debate, and understanding across cultures.

Chartered and accredited in the United States and Egypt, it is an independent, not-for-profit, equal-opportunity institution. AUC upholds the principles of academic freedom and is dedicated to excellence. The university offers an open atmosphere and a completely redesigned campus - complete with access to a 400,000-volume library, restaurants and cafeterias, gyms and sporting areas.

Cairo is the administrative capital of Egypt and close by is almost every Egyptian Pyramid. The Great Pyramids of Giza located on the very edge of the city. There are also ancient temples, tombs, Christian churches, magnificent Muslim monuments, and the Egyptian Antiquities Museum all either within or nearby the city.
